SUMMER AT TERRANEA: WORDS DON'T DO IT JUSTICE.

There are some things in life that words just can't describe. The experience of Terranea is one of them. The minute you approach this 102-acre peninsula paradise, you're greeted with a view like nowhere else in California—yet only minutes from L.A. The deep blue of the Pacific surrounds you on three sides of this amazing peninsula, taking your breath away and calming your senses all at once. It's a view you can't walk away from, but you'll have to in order to experience all that Terranea has to offer. Not to worry because the soothing expanse of the Pacific will greet you at nearly every turn.

The coastal setting of Terranea embraces its Mediterranean heritage and incorporates it into every inch of architecture. From the resort's lobby and outdoor gardens to the private terraces and inviting courtyards, Terranea is infused with classic Californian elegance. From the moment you arrive, you'll begin to appreciate that in order to understand life at Terranea, you have to experience it for yourself.

DISCOVER TERRANEA RESORT

Terranea's guest rooms, suites, bungalows, casitas and villas are chic yet functional, balanced and inviting, and replete with modern conveniences. Each offers expansive living space with additional great rooms, perfect for your getaway.

Step out of the rooms and find plenty of space to roam, with a wealth of activities for kids, teens and adults alike—from stand-up paddle-boarding and kayaking to tide pooling and snorkeling on the water, to a coastal hike, a horseback trail ride or a visit to the one-of-a-kind falconry program, all just a stone's throw away. Don't forget the chance to take an oceanside painting class or to see whales and dolphins in their natural habitat on a whale watching tour.

The innovative adventure concierge helps you discover and explore every inch of the resort's natural beauty. Whether you're a couple, a few friends, a solo adventurer or an entire family looking for an unforgettable getaway, look no further than Terranea.

The resort's main pool boasts a 140-foot waterslide and jumping splash pad. Open to guests ages 13 and older, the saltwater Vista Pool offers stunning views of the ocean with poolside food and beverage service. For even more relaxation, reserve a private cabana at the Spa Pool, or sip an exotic drink around the fire pit at the adults-only Cielo Point Pool.

REJUVENATE

Restore, refresh and realign at its award-winning spa overlooking the Pacific Ocean. Embracing the natural beauty and energy of its Southern California setting, The Spa at Terranea spans more than 50,000 square feet of indoor/outdoor space, with 25 treatment rooms, a fitness and wellness center, a boutique and a café.

Taking full advantage of the "only here" views, Terranea's collection of eight restaurants promises amazing dining with a beautiful backdrop to match. The chefs personally tailor menus, with an emphasis on regional and seasonal ingredients. Of course, a complete in-room dining menu is available 24 hours a day.

At Terranea Resort, adventure and relaxation come naturally—even if describing the experience is just a little tougher, of course, in the best way possible. It's all just minutes from the heart of Los Angeles, a place where you'll have an experience that just may leave you speechless.

DINE & WINE

From casual cafes to white tablecloth dining rooms, health-conscious vegetarian to cowboy style steakhouses, spicy Southwestern to elegant Italian, Sedona has emerged as a destination for lovers of fine food. Local fruit and produce, along with trout pulled from Oak Creek are menu mainstays. Varietals of grapes grow on lush hillsides producing fine Arizona wines, the perfect pairing for your meal. Sedona is meant to be savored.

SLEEP

Something about the beautiful setting inspires innkeepers to create little lodging masterpieces. Choose between sumptuous full-service resorts, romantic B&Bs, charming woodland cabins or retro motor courts. The architectural flourishes, unique décor and personal touches provide options for every pocketbook and make it feel like you're staying at the home of dear friends.

ART & SHOPPING

The dramatic setting and ever-changing light of Sedona have been a powerful lure for creative types. It is an arts community of ruggedly individualistic expression, from cutting-edge contemporary to visionary, Native American to modern realism. Prowl galleries and retail shops that showcase the artistic diversity of Sedona. You'll also find wearable art, home décor, garden accents, books, music, souvenirs and so much more.

Plan your stay at the Most Beautiful

ENJOY

Every season brings a different event, generally with an artistic or outdoorsy slant because those are Sedona specialties. Sedona International Film Festival has grown into one of the most prestigious gatherings of cinephiles in the country. Other annual events include the Sedona Marathon, Sedona Arts Festival, Sedona Plein Air Festival and Sedona Winefest to name just a few. For a full calendar of events, visit SedonaEvents.com.

CELEBRATE

To complement the stunning backdrop, Sedona boasts an array of wedding planners, florists, caterers, musicians, photographers and officiants. These experts will make your wedding, honeymoon or any other special occasion exceptional and memorable.

HAVE A CANYON ADVENTURE

If Sedona has a kindred spirit it's the Grand Canyon. The two geological marvels are both "bucket list" destinations. See a photo of either the Grand Canyon or Sedona and you can't mistake it for anywhere else. Yet photos don't begin to do these Arizona icons justice. They must be experienced in person. Sedona makes the perfect base camp with a wide array of creature comforts set amid heart-squeezing beauty.
